Surfside Police Department

Award and/or commendation

Date of occurrence: 2010

Employee Name: Sgt. Rory Alberto

Award/Commendation type and recommendations: Officer of the Year 2010

Narrative:

Sgt. Rory Alberto has been selected as the Officer of the Year by the Awards Committee. In January 2010, Sgt. Alberto received the Officer of the Month for arresting a subject who broke into two automobiles. In February 2010, Sgt Alberto was commended for arresting a subject prowling in the residential area. Further investigation revealed that he had just broken into an automobile. In February 2010, Sgt. Alberto was commended by the Pack Leader for a Cub Scout visit and tour of the Police Department. In March of 2010, Sgt. Alberto was commended for leading a group of police officers during a two week plainclothes detail to combat a residential burglary problem. In May of 2010, Sgt. Alberto was commended for arresting two subjects who had stolen two bicycles from a house. In May 2010, Sgt. Alberto was commended by the State Attorneys from the nation of Columbia for instructing a police course for them in Surfside. In July of 2010, Sgt. Alberto was commended for leading a committee of police officers and dispatchers in developing new and uniform radio and laptop procedures for the department. In September of 2010, Sgt. Alberto was selected as the new supervisor of the Criminal Investigations Unit. In September of 2010, Sgt. Alberto was selected as Officer of the Month for the arrest of a subject for armed home invasion. He also arrested two other subjects on other charges and recovered two firearms and the stolen property.

In addition to his numerous commendations and outstanding police work, Sgt. Alberto represents the Police Department in an exceptional professional manner. He leads by example and is well respected not only in the Police Department but also in the community where he is always willing to assist residents. Congratulations and well deserved!

Chief of Police: David Allen   Date: January 26, 2011