

TAEKWONDO

This program follows the curriculum established by the ATFI, one of the National governing bodies for the International Taekwon-Do Federation in the United States. Students will learn and practice correct terminology, stances, blocking, striking, kicking, patterns, step sparring, free sparring, self-defense, and breaking techniques for each level or rank obtained. Students will not only develop discipline, respect, self-control, courtesy, integrity, and indomitable spirit, but also develop physical and mental coordination, excellent conditioning, and toughness to deal with a variety of situations, all while training in a safe environment.
