GAZETTE

Manager's Message

We have finished the first month of FY 11/12. My first fiscal year in government was FY 70/71, 41 years ago. Hard to believe. Monumental issues at the national and international level which impacted local government as well as statewide and local issues of major impact have come and gone. Amazingly, I still think a public service career is an admirable path and believe now more than ever we need good people to get involved in government as employees, volunteers and elected officials. Surfside is blessed with many such involved people who believe in public service without any desire for self aggrandizement or unjust financial reward.

There is much good news to celebrate. The Surfside, Bal Harbour, Bay Harbor sewer force main project on Collins Avenue has been completed well before the committed Thanksgiving end date. Congrats to Public Works Director Bill Evans and the members of the construction coordinating team that met weekly to ensure we kept to task, resolved all issues and kept the public aware of developments and answered inquiries quickly.

The same attention to detail is being provided to the Town's own water/sewer/storm drainage project which will replace our 70 year old very deteriorated systems. Thanks to our residents in the southern single family neighborhood who are patiently bearing the brunt of the construction. The first 60 homes on Abbott Avenue should have their new water supply turned on in early November. There will also be microwave readable water meters which will tell us if consumption spikes so we can notify owners of possible leaks. More than 1100 of the 1300 impacted property owners have signed the permission slip to allow us to tie in their homes without cost. If we do not receive the remaining 200 by November 15, 2011 the owner will have to bear the estimated $600 to have it completed by a private plumber and the permitting process will be more extensive. Also, once the neighborhood is turned over to the new system, anyone not tapped in will be without water. Visit www.utilityupgradeproject.com or call Bill Evans at (305) 861-4863.

We have also finished the study of the various parking lots to determine what work is necessary to upgrade the lots similar to the Post Office lot. We have moved Town employees from the 94th Street lot and the lot across from Town Hall to the newly acquired lot behind Town Hall. Thanks to the Town Commission for supporting the acquisition of the property behind Town Hall at less than 50 percent of appraised value since the property had been foreclosed by the bank.

Due to the intense scrutiny of the FY 11/12 Budget by the Town Commission, we were able to reduce the millage by .5000 mills and hold the line on water/sewer/storm drainage rates. This is no small accomplishment since we had to absorb a water rate increase from Miami Dade County and fund the cost of operating the new Community Center for the entire year. We have made the first payment on the bond issue necessary to fund the water/sewer/storm drainage project and will continue to manage this project with the goal of timely completion with money left over to improve the traffic calming devices, plant trees and replace our street signs.

My next month's message will focus on closing out the Community Center construction project and some lessons learned in the saga of this wonderful facility,

IT HAPPENS ON HARDING! - Art in Public Places

Born out of one of the initiatives from the Downtown Vision Advisory Committee, the windows of three Harding Avenue vacant buildings recently received an artistic makeover.

This joint venture between the Town and downtown property owners was made possible by photographs submitted by Surfsiders Donna Natale Planas and Maria Socarras and Gazette producer MediaTech. Of special interest is the poem about living in Surfside at 9448 Harding that was written by 7th grader Simone D'Antuono, Home Sweet Surfside.

discussion of the "vision thing" and how a Town Manager works with involved citizens, consultants and the Town Commission to create and implement a vision and finally, some thoughts on leadership and running for office. I hope my Messages are interesting, a little provocative and go beyond just feel good news. Let me know if you agree or have any suggestions at rcarlton@townofsurfsidefl.gov.

Finally, please join me in welcoming Code Enforcement Director Joe Damien and Town Clerk Sandra Novoa to the Surfside family. Two extraordinarily talented people who rose to the top from more than 1600 candidates for both positions. Thanks to Assistant Chief John Di Censo and Human Resources Director Yami Slate McCloud for filling in while these recruitments were underway. As always thanks to the Town Commission and the people of Surfside for the opportunity to manage this wonderful community.

OFFICERS OF THE MONTH

August 2011

Officers Lesmez Ruiz and John Gentile were named August Officers of the Month for apprehending two suspicious individuals on separate occasions who were later charged with serious crimes. One was found to be carrying items burglarized from a Surfside resident's car and the other was charged with grand theft for stealing nearly $6,000 in cash from the Miami Beach Parking Department. Congratulations to both officers.

Officer John Gentile (C) with family join Asst. Chief John DiCenso, Mayor Daniel Dietch, Chief David Allen and Officer Lesmez Ruiz (R)

September 2011

Officers Micah Smith and Marian Valino were named September Officers of the Month for their teamwork in arresting two individuals who had burglarized four vehicles in Surfside. While patrolling in the early morning hours, Officer Smith noticed a car door open and saw a man and woman leaving the scene. After questioning them, Officer Smith requested Det. Valino to further investigate the suspects. They admitted to four auto break-ins during that one evening. Officer Smith was commended for his proactive patrol efforts while Det. Valino is commended for her investigative skills and keeping Surfside safe for all residents.

Young Resident Pens Surfside Poem

Home Sweet Surfside
By Simone D'Antuono

*Surfside, it's bigger than you think
Everywhere you walk, someone gives you a wink
The beach is only a block away
Surfside is the town where I'm here to stay*

*Surfside has been around for 75 years
Right around the corner are some of my peers
We had a celebration, a parade in the street
We walked and danced until we hit the beach*

*My neighbors and I, we meet at the park
We usually stay there until it gets dark
We have a new Community Center where we swim in the pool
We like to go there on days we don't have school*

*It's a safe neighborhood to just walk around
Wherever you go, there's a nice peaceful sound
Friends and family are all close by
Just a skip and a jump and I can say hi*

*There are restaurants, stores and yogurt to eat
Living here is such a treat
This is a place I love to roam
Surfside is my Home Sweet Home*
