February Message from the Town Manager

The Surfside General Municipal Election is scheduled for Tuesday, March 17 at Town Hall. According to a New York Times op-ed, on average only 27 percent of eligible voters actually vote in municipal elections nationwide. This is a relatively low turnout considering the direct impact that local government has on the lives of citizens.

You can meet the various candidates who are running for the Office of Mayor and Commission, as well as learn about how they propose to govern Surfside by attending two Candidate Forums this month (refer to the box below for dates and details.) Surfside elections are held every two years for the Mayor and all four Commissioners. Check your voter registration status, request an absentee ballot if needed, become familiar with the candidates, and join us on March 17 to cast your vote.

In addition to exercising your right to vote in the upcoming election, we invite you to the popular Third Thursdays block party on Thursday, February 20 with yoga and wellness activities (see page 2.) We also want to put your body and mind in motion at the Get Fit Surfside event, hosted by the Parks and Recreation Department on Sunday, February 23 at the Community Center (see page 7). For a full calendar of events and election information, check the Town website.

In 1963, Dade County established minimum housing standards to protect the public health, safety, morals and welfare of all residents. In May 2002, the Town of Surfside adopted and incorporated by reference the County ordinance to govern the condition, occupancy and maintenance of all dwellings in the Town.

The ordinance covers all dwelling units and the premises relating to utilities, facilities and other physical components and conditions that make dwellings safe, sanitary and fit for human habitation. The standards also fix certain responsibilities and duties of owners, operators, managers, agents and occupants of dwellings, and imposes penalties for the violation of any provisions of the housing standards.

The housing standards authorize Code Compliance Officers to make inspections to determine the condition of dwellings, including single-family homes, duplexes, triplexes, apartment buildings, condominiums, rooming houses, hotels and other premises to safeguard the health, safety and welfare of the public. All dwellings are required to be kept clean, sanitary and in a weather-tight condition. Multi-family buildings are required to be structurally sound and maintained in good repair. Utilities, plumbing, public spaces and common facilities and amenities in all multi-family buildings are required to be kept in a good condition and in proper working order.

For more information on Minimum Housing Standards, contact the Code Compliance Division at (305) 861-4863.

Ariel Swedroe Weinberg, a Surfside resident and a junior at the Design and Architecture High School (DASH), has been named a 2020 National YoungArts Foundation Finalist. Ariel was recognized for her achievement in design arts and joins the nation's most accomplished students in the visual, literary and performance arts. From 8,000 applicants, Ariel was selected as one of the 149 finalists. She recently participated in National YoungArts Week in Miami where she also presented her award-winning designs. National YoungArts Week is an intensive, all-inclusive master classes, workshops and mentorship from leading artists in their fields.

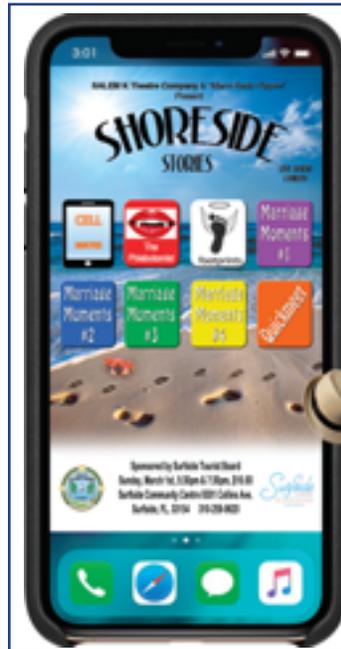

clothing (see at left). When she is not creating colorful beachwear, outfits and accessories, Ariel enjoys photography, spending time with her family and a close circle of friends. Her grandparents also live in the same Surfside neighborhood. "Surfside is a great place to live," Laurie said, "We really love our Town." To see Ariel's designs go to her Facebook page: Swedroe Art to

Wear by Ariel or to www.swedroebyariel.com

"I'm honored to be a YoungArts finalist." Ariel said. "It was great to meet the other artists from around the country. I loved incorporating sustainability into my fashion designs and seeing what the future brings with new processes and material innovation."

Ariel and her twin brother Adam, both grew up in Surfside and attended Ruth K. Broad Bay Harbor K-8 Center before going to high school. Her mother, Laurie Swedroe, said Ariel has always been interested in fashion and she started to design as a child. Among Ariel's many striking and creative designs, it was the bold dresses made of sheets of recycled plastics and other repurposed fabrics that caught the eyes of the YoungArts judges. Ariel reuses a wide variety of fabrics and even industrial pieces to create her dramatic

POLICE BEAT

11th Annual Toy Giveaway Brings Holiday Cheer

Children of all ages greeted Mr. and Mrs. Claus as they arrived at Town Hall on a shrieking fire rescue truck from Miami-Dade Fire Rescue Station 76 at the 11th Annual Surfside Police Department's Holiday Toy event. With seasonal music playing, Santa and his team of elves (all Town staff in costume) danced on the sidewalk and led the children into Town Hall where a mountain of donated toys awaited. The children selected age-appropriate toys that brightened their holiday season. The Office of Miami-Dade Commissioner Sally Heyman donated a skateboard which was raffled off during the event. A special thanks to all the supporters, the Police Department and Town staff who participated.

OFFICERS OF THE MONTH DECEMBER 2019

During the holidays, Surfside Officers Ronald Donoso, Marianne Durante and John Gentile responded to a call of a depressed woman who left her friends' house after saying she wanted to commit suicide by drowning in the ocean. The officers saturated the area of the beach searching for the suicidal woman. Officer Donoso obtained a photograph showing the area where the woman was located. Officers Durante and Gentile quickly located the woman on the beach. The officers held back the woman as she tried to run into the water, saying she wanted to die. She was transported to Mt. Sinai Hospital. The officers displayed alertness, compassion and invaluable police instincts. Their professionalism and dedication led to locating the victim unharmed. Congratulations as recipients of the December 2019 Officer of the Month. Well deserved!

CIVILIAN OF THE MONTH DECEMBER 2019

During the past month, Executive Assistant to the Chief Dina Goldstein oversaw the 11th annual Police Department's Holiday Toy Drive as she has the previous 10 years. This event includes advertisements for hundreds of donated new toys, sorting and displaying the toys, vetting and inviting needy families to the toy giveaway party and coordinating, managing and organizing of the event and pre-event meetings. The Miami-Dade Fire Rescue Department again drove Santa and his crew to Town Hall on the fire truck. Thanks also goes to Town personnel who were recruited to assist with the event for registration, set-up, decoration and cleanup of the Commission Chambers and the training room. Congratulations to Dina Goldstein as the recipient of the December 2019 Civilian of the Month. Well deserved!
