MESSAGE FROM THE TOWN MANAGER

As we approach the holiday season, a special time of the year for many across a wide-range of cultures, we continue to have so many things to appreciate and be grateful for. Let us take time to value each other and wish everyone a cheerful Holiday Season.

December in Surfside is known for sunny skies, low humidity with little or no rain resulting in the perfect conditions to enjoy our beach and wonderful special events lineup. On Sunday, December 18, the Department of Parks and Recreation will host its Annual Winter Wonderland event from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. at the 96th Street Park and the same day, from 4:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m., the Tourist Board will be hosting a salsa edition of Music on the Beach at 93rd Street east of the Community Center. Please join us!

Also later this month, we are looking forward to unveiling the renovated Town Hall lobby following a redesign project. Not only is it more aesthetically pleasing and organized, but it will allow our staff to better serve you.

From the Town of Surfside family to yours, we wish you a Happy Holiday season and hope for a prosperous New Year.

Andrew Hyatt, Town Manager

TOURISM AND COMMUNICATIONS

HO HO HO HARDING – KEEP IT LOCAL THIS HOLIDAY SEASON!

As the holiday season arrives, so too does the annual challenge of gift shopping. While health and love are the warmest presents one could ever receive, tokens of appreciation can also leave a lasting impression. Finding the right gift for the right person can at times prove difficult, but succeed and you'll be rewarded with big smiles and an extra-dose of seasonal joy – especially from the little ones (more on how to make that happen ahead in our Sunny Toys & Gifts article).

Surfside's Harding Avenue is lined with small mom & pop gift stores and boutiques that will help your gift selections stand out in a big way. Here's an inside look at some uniquely Surfside suggestions.

Retail, Boutiques

Bring the ocean vibes from Surfside's beach right to your closet with gorgeous, sustainably-crafted resort-wear garments and accessories from SIGAL Boutique located at 9543 Harding Ave. Buy online at Shopsignal.com

For the men in your life, visit Condotti located at 9565 Harding Ave. Condotti offers a wide selection of unique, Italian-made silk ties and accessories that make for elevated stocking stuffers. Shop online at Condottistore.com

One of the business district's most popular retailers, TR Runway, proves modest fashion can be anything but boring. Their selection of dresses, tops, skirts and more is always cutting edge, and carefully-curated by their team. Shop in person at 9458 Harding Ave. or online at TRRunway.com

If you're venturing beyond clothing and retail, you'll want to hit a few gift-specific stores known for their one-of-a-kind offerings. Miami Gift, located at 9482 Harding Ave., blends carries an exclusive selection of Broasway Italia jewelry and other fun and colorful accessories.

Packed with a plethora of precious papers, tchotchkes, small gifts, and souvenirs, The Scarlet Letter (9452 Harding Ave.) is a one-stop-shop for unique finds. Among the local businesses in Town, Jessica Bazan's unique throwback shop has an inspiring story that contributes to the charm of Surfside. www.thescarletletterstore.com

They say seeing is believing, and when you step into Surfside's luxury eyewear shop, Oberle Opticians, you'll find the best array of stylish shades. In fact, many of the brands they carry are exclusive names not easily found in the United States. 9425 Harding Ave. www.oberleopticians.com

Watches, Décor

For that special someone, Gray & Sons is the best place in Surfside to find a forever gift. A 30-year Surfside local, the full-service showroom features a range of pre-owned/vintage fine jewelry and watches in a refined space. If you're looking for a sparkler or a collector's timepiece, Gray & Sons and their expert staff can help you find just what you are looking for.

For a practical gift that truly shines, stop by Pampaloni Silver which features 100% original, Italian hand-crafted high-quality silver pieces produced entirely in their original factory in Florence, which dates all the way back to 1902! Store located at 9513 Harding Avenue. www.pampalonli.com

Flowers, Jewelry

No matter what time of year it is, there's something about jewelry and flowers that just spells out l o v e. A classic choice for lovebirds of any era, Harding has several options to choose from:

- Amoris Flowers + Events, 9577 Harding Ave. www.amorisflowers.com
- Absolut Flowers by Manny, 9481 Harding Ave. www.absolutflowersandevents.com
- Miamira Jewelers, 9573 Harding Ave.
- 7th Plateau, 9559 Harding Ave.

POLICE

LOCAL HEROS RECOGNIZED

Miami-Dade County's local heroes (healthcare professionals, law enforcement and frontline workers) were honored for their incredible sacrifices throughout the COVID-19 pandemic at the inaugural Hometown Heroes Parade on October 30, 2022 hosted by Mayor Daniella Levine Cava and the Miami-Dade Board of County Commissioners. The parade began at 11:00 a.m. at the InterContinental Miami Hotel near Bayfront Park, proceeded along Biscayne Blvd., and ended at the Miami HEAT Arena. The parade featured police, K-9 units, special forces, healthcare workers, marching bands and more. Additionally, there was a "water parade" to celebrate the marine division first responders. Participants and bystanders were invited to join the Family Fun Fest after the parade concluded at the arena. Officer Joseph Matthews and Officer Mike participated in the event.

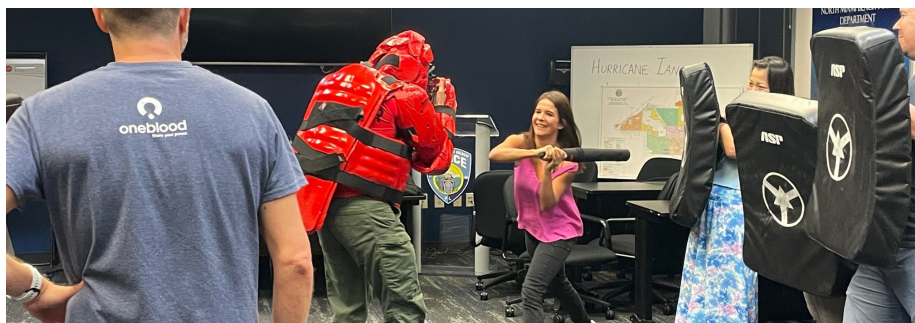

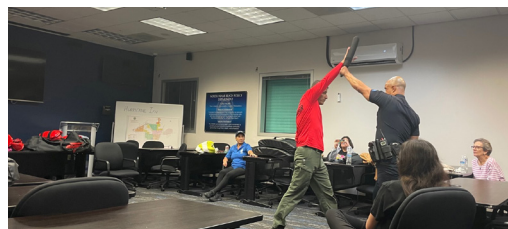

OFFICER MIKE MEETS TINY NEW FRIENDS

As part of Community Helper Week, Detective Diana Leon spoke to 85 kids from a neighboring preschool about our Station Dog Program. The toddlers were overjoyed to meet Officer Mike and interact with our beloved Station Dog.

CITIZENS POLICE ACADEMY

The Citizens Police Academy traveled to the North Miami Beach Police Department for an exciting class on November 2, 2022. Participants received a Use of Force presentation from Sergeant Jay Matelis and Sergeant Julio Torres and experienced a thrill operating the Firearms Simulator with police officers from North Miami Beach. Thank you to the North Miami Beach Police Department for welcoming us to their Police Station and hospitality.

CLOSET OF LIVING HOPE: HOW SURFSIDE'S SERGEANT MARIAN CRUZ EMPOWERS SURVIVORS OF DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

Sergeant Marian Cruz, a Surfside Police Department veteran with over 18 years of experience with the Town, found her purpose by aiding the most vulnerable. It started as an act of service five years ago when a former Surfside commissioner wanted to donate clothing to the local women's shelter. Cruz, a devoted Christian and active member of her church, offered to receive it and make sure the donations landed in the hands of those who needed it. "I continued to do it throughout the years and everyone started to know me as the person to receive and deliver donations to the shelter," said Cruz.

Alongside a group of women from her Church, Cruz began to organize events at the shelter on special holidays such as Easter, Mother's Day, Thanksgiving and Christmas. They take prepared food, music, toiletries, used clothing, and offer prayer and fellowship. The goal, she said, is to make them feel they are not alone. That was a catalyst that ignited Cruz to found Closet of Living Hope a non-profit organization that aims to put resources in the hands of not only women and children who have been victims of domestic violence but anyone who has experienced hardship.

Cruz collects gently worn clothes and shoes, toiletries and feminine products to give to the people staying at the shelters and those suffering through a tribulation. Cruz partners with Safe Space an agency that provides shelter for domestic violence victims and survivors. Safe Space has several shelters throughout the county. "Serving people is my passion," Cruz said. "It's not only about the material things that we can give but it's also about bringing a word of hope and letting them know that their current circumstance will not last forever. It will get better."

There was a particular incident that impacted Cruz's life. While visiting the woman's shelter she met a mom of four who was a recent victim of domestic violence. Unbeknownst to Cruz, the mom had decided to end her life and the life of her children by ingesting poison later on that same night. However, it was thanks to the encouragement Cruz imparted to her, the mom felt there was still hope for her and her family. As soon as Cruz left, the mom asked for help and turned her kids in to social services sparing their lives and her own. "It's not I who deserves any praise, it's all God," said Cruz, as she held back tears. "I am just a vessel and it was God speaking through me to that woman, I believe that He was the one that saved her life. He was the one that saved those children's lives that day."

Closet of Living Hope is Cruz's first venture into the non-profit world. Although, Cruz is nervous she is also confident that God will open up doors and lead her to the right path. Recently, her husband made space in his rented warehouse in Homestead to store all donations. She organizes the gently worn articles by size, it will have a section for toiletries and essentials to prepare the care packages that go directly to the people who need them. "The warehouse is my happy place, there is truly more in giving than in receiving," Cruz said. "This is my passion and my purpose."

She confesses that even though there is no air conditioning at the warehouse, she joyfully spends hours organizing and making sure it's all presentable. She envisions a time soon to come when Closet of Living Hope can have its own location where she can invite the victims and their children to shop and select the items they like and need—all free of charge.

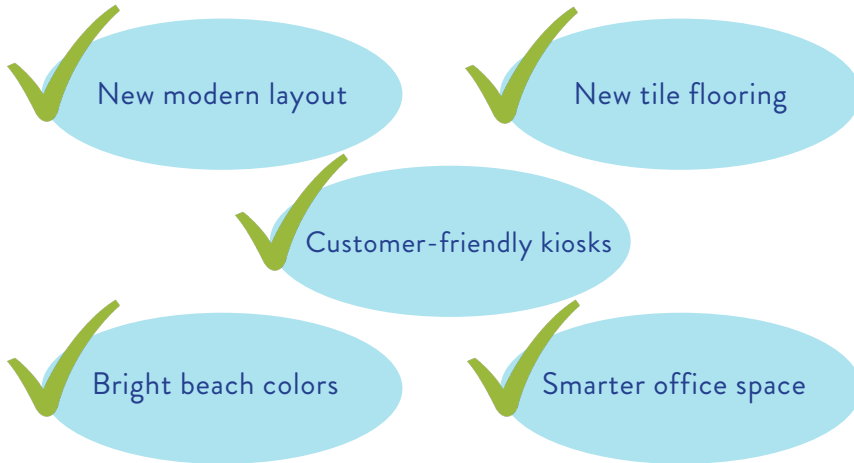

Cruz thanks all the support she has received from her coworkers, people at church, family and friends. On Oct. 25, the Aventura Marketing Council recognized Cruz for her efforts to help survivors of domestic violence. "I want people who are suffering to feel and know that there is a community that cares and there is a God who loves them," Cruz said. "They are not alone and I want to help them achieve a fresh new start."

If you're interested in volunteering, donating, or need help from Closet of Living Hope, please contact Cruz via email at marian@closetoflivinghope.com and follow them on Instagram @closet_of_living_hope.

BUILDING DEPARTMENT

NEW AND IMPROVED TOWN HALL

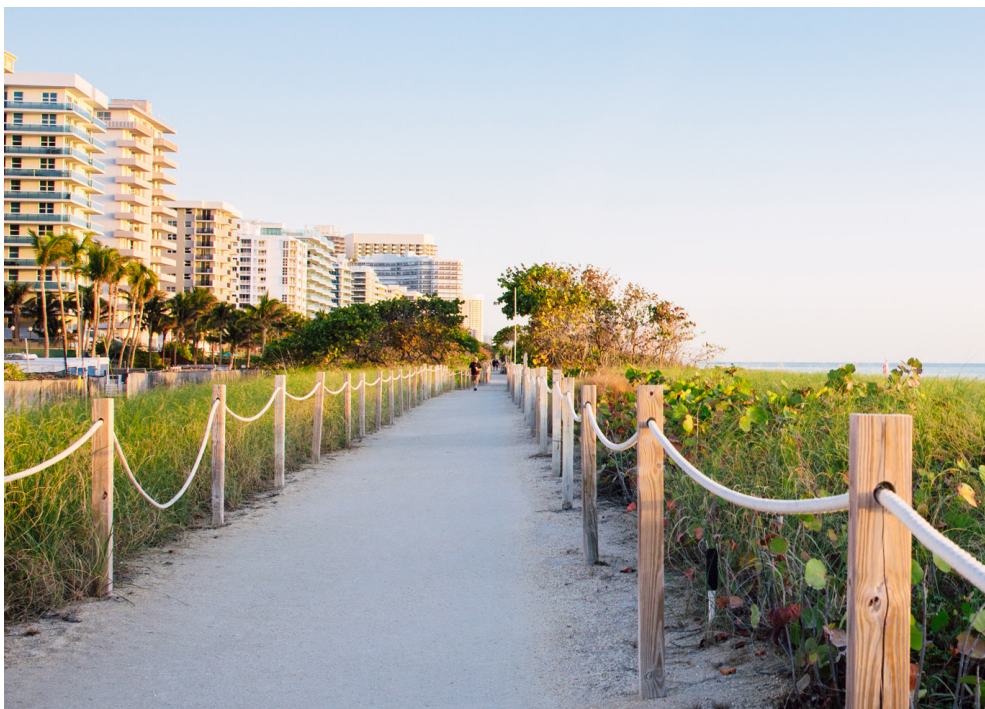

We are excited to unveil the new Front Office Lobby at Town Hall this month of December and look forward to better serving you at our fully remodeled Building Department. Learn more on the Town website at www.townofsursidefl.gov!

CODE CORNER

SIMPLIFIED SIGNAGE BEING INSTALLED ALONG THE BEACH PATHS

In an effort to simplify and improve the signs placed throughout the hard pack and walking path, Code Compliance collaborated with Public Works and Communications to develop updated designs that will reduce information clutter and clearly communicate four of the most common beach-related Code violations: No dogs on the beach, no bikes other than on the hard pack, no fire and no fishing. Some of the existing signage with additional beach safety content and rip current information will remain in place along with the sea-turtle nesting season signs.

PUBLIC WORKS BULLETIN

NEW BYRON AVENUE TRAFFIC CIRCLE BOLLARDS

The Public Works Department has installed new concrete bollards at the traffic circle located at 95th Street and Byron Avenue. Each bollard has supplementary lighting to assist pedestrians navigate at night and to improve visibility of the bollards to passing vehicles. Additional signage was also installed at the traffic circle directing commercial trucks to approved routes out of residential areas.

PUBLIC WORKS HOSTS PUBLIC DRAINAGE IMPROVEMENT TOWN HALL FORUM

On Thursday, Oct. 27, the Public Works Department hosted a Drainage Improvement and Flood Hazard Mitigation Town Hall forum at the Community Center alongside the Brizaga engineering team. The information session was held in a hybrid format to educate residents on the flooding challenges faced by Surfside residents and the drainage enhancement efforts that are in the works to help mitigate the problem and improve Town resiliency. To view the recording, click on the Stormwater Masterplan, Abbott Avenue Drainage Project link located on the left of the Public Works page.

PARKS & RECREATION

VETERANS DAY CEREMONY

Last month, the Town of Surfside's Parks and Recreation Department hosted the Annual Veterans Day Ceremony at Veteran's Park on Friday, Nov. 11.

Mayor Danzinger led the ceremony and was joined by Vice Mayor Rose, Commissioner Landsman and Commissioner Meisheid in honoring the brave men and women who have served our country.

A SPOOKTACULAR RECAP

Surfside residents of all ages gathered to enjoy tricks and treats at this year's Halloween Spooktacular event. The autumn festivity included a haunted maze, a scare zone, carnival games, a rock-climbing wall, a mechanical bull ride, live music and much, much more.

Rare Double Lot on
Hibiscus Island
120' on The Water

3 Beds | 4 Baths
3,646 Sq. Ft.
Listed at: $22,000,000

345 N. Hibiscus Dr. Miami Beach, FL 33139
NEW LISTING: Listed for the first time in 45 years! This home is located on a 21,000 SF double lot with 120' on the wide water and a huge dock for your yacht. Undoubtedly the best wide inter-coastal views on the islands, this house faces NE for stunning sunrises. This double lot can be divided to build 2 new homes or build one huge dream home on the full 1/2 acre. The home is a time capsule from the 1970s and is ready to be remodeled or replaced. Located just minutes from SOBE and the beaches. This is what Miami is all about. *Note to developers: Build two 5,000 SF homes and sell them for over 30% profit!
